Brief description:

Nine Saints. Each name of a Saint, printed in georgian alphabet is followed by a doublepage with the image of a surface of a wall, full page, lifestize alike. The technic of the photogravure etching allows to have strong, tar-alike blacks. As key to the work we have Clemens-Tobias Langes visit to many churches in Georgia in 2007. For different reasons, all the historic icons in the churches were scratched or hidden. He was impressed by the deeply religious people sedulously praying in front of the walls, illuminated by innumerable candles. These candles are painting with their smoke new icons of Saints during the prayer. A book in memory of the anchestors linking to another part of the world.

Flexible binding with handmade paper Moulin Richard de Bas, France, 240 g/m, treated with bee-wax by the artist. Binding: Thomas Zwang
